In this regard, FIR No. 0433 was lodged on 15/9/21 with P.S. Dantakor Distt., Greater Noida. It is stated that the Vehicle No. DL-IMA-3103 was insured with R-2 under policy No. T-1GYSRUB8P400 MF 042080 valid from 31/7/20 to 30/7/21. The deceased employee was 31 yrs old at the time of accident & was drawing Rs. 15,000/- per month as salary plus Rs. 1050 per day as food allowance.

The claimant has requested that respondent be directed to pay compensation as per Provisions of FC Act, 1923. R

The R-1 & R-2, both have filed their W.O. The R-1 has admitted the factum of accident as well as employer-employee relationship. Though, R-2 has also contested the case but now the Claimant as well as R-2 have agreed to settle the dispute. The Authorised Representative of R-2 has made an offer of Rupees Seventeen lakh to the Claimant towards the settlement of claim as full & final payment. The Claimant after due deliberation with her family members as well as with the consent of her counsel has agreed with the proposal moved by the R-2.

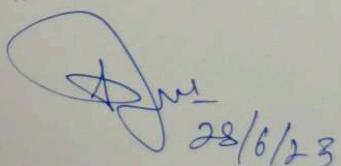

Case No. CEC-DINE/30/31

The Claimant has been explained the terms & conditions of settlement proposed by R-2 in her mother tongue i.e. Hindi in the open Court & she has willingly given her consent to make this settlement. Further, the proposed amount of Rs. 17 Lakh is genuine in the given circumstances & in accordance with the provisions of EC Act, 1923.

Now, both the parties have agreed to settle this dispute & the respondent no. 2 will make payment of Rs. 17 Lakh towards compensation as a full & final payment within 30 days of passing this order.

The Respondent No. 2 is directed to deposit Rs 17 Lakh (Rupees Seventeen Lakh Only) in favour of Commissioner Employees Compensation, North East Distt. Case is closed as settled.

Copy of the Order supplied Dasti to the parties.
